

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2261 - SB 2255

March 16, 2009

SUMMARY OF BILL: Transfers the supervision responsibility of an offender who successfully completes a special alternative incarceration program or a technical violator program from the Division of Community Services in the Department of Correction to the Board of Probation and Parole (BOPP).

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- Community supervision including probation, parole, and community corrections grant programs were formally moved to a separate agency, BOPP, in 1999. Other offenders who complete the special alternative program would be released to BOPP supervision. Any increase in state expenditures is estimated to be not significant.
